

PERMISSION FORM

Thank for you participating in ANSTO's National Science Week Hackathon 2021. Please print and hand-out to each of the students who will be on your school's team to be signed. Please scan all the permission forms into one PDF and upload into the confirmation form, which needs to be submitted no later than Friday 6th August 2021. Completed permission forms can also be emailed separately to Tina Baradaran (baradart@ansto.gov.au) by the deadline. We understand that due to lockdown in some states, access to a scanner and printer may be difficult. We will accept photos of signed permission forms.

Applications are only accepted directly from teachers.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CYBER CODE OF CONDUCT

ANSTO will use Microsoft Teams to facilitate this Hackathon collaboration between students and mentors. By joining this Team, students agree to maintain a safe working environment by sharing only appropriate content with Team members. Online abuse, harassment and sharing offensive or graphic material with not be tolerated. Students are to protect the privacy of others by not sharing the personal information of others without their permission. Students are to edit or delete documents that are only their own. Students are to take responsibility for their own conduct on this online platform.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Your school's code of conduct applies to this event as you will be working on your hack during school hours. ANSTO is dedicated to providing a harassment-free experience for everyone regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, age, religion or technology choices. We do not tolerate harassment in any form. Event participants violating these rules may be sanctioned or expelled from ANSTO events at the discretion of the ANSTO's National Science Week Hackathon organisers.

PRIVACY COLLECTION STATEMENT AND CONSENT

The personal information that ANSTO may collect includes the names of the student, Parent/Guardian and Teacher, the name of your school, the student's age, state or territory location, photographs, voice recordings and video recordings. ANSTO may use information obtained during the Hackathon in printed and digital materials and websites including reports, brochures, fact sheets, websites, case studies, promotional videos and multimedia presentations. The materials may be used by media outlets. Personal details may also be used to contact the student, Parent/Guardian or Teacher regarding future ANSTO events or to seek your feedback on the Hackathon.

The information will only be used for the purposes outlined above, except where required by law. ANSTO respects your right to privacy of your information. Your contact details will remain strictly confidential and will be stored securely to comply with privacy regulations.
