Position Title:	Group Learning and Development Specialist
Cluster / Business Unit / Division	Chief Operating Officer Group People, Performance and Capability
Section or Unit:	Learning and Development
Classification:	Band 6
Position Description Number:	PD-2055
Work Contract Type:	Professional

POSITION PURPOSE

The Group Learning and Development Specialist designs, manages and leads the design and implementation of ANSTO's collaborative training programs, including face-to-face, virtual and webinars. The role works closely with subject matter experts and business areas to develop and deliver training modules and ensure programs and training material are fit for purpose, meet business and legislative requirements, and are aligned to ANSTO's strategic objectives.

The role works closely with all areas of the business to identify and analyse training needs and to develop the most suitable training outputs. The Group Learning and Development Specialist researches and makes recommendations on a suite of training packages for ANSTO.

ORGANISATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

ANSTO leverages great science to deliver big outcomes. We partner with scientists and engineers and apply new technologies to provide real-world benefits. Our work improves human health, saves lives, builds our industries and protects the environment. ANSTO is the home of Australia's most significant landmark and national infrastructure for research. Thousands of scientists from industry and academia benefit from gaining access to state-of-the-art instruments every year.

People, Performance and Capability manage a number of critical services to the organisation and execute strategic and operational initiatives in the achievement of ANSTO's strategic plan, which ensure the safety, security and wellbeing of ANSTO staff, facilities and operations.

The Learning and Development (L&D) team deliver an ANSTO wide training curriculum for all staff ranging from Early Careers to Executive level. The team contribute to ANSTO's vision by supporting people with knowledge and skills development, that will improve the organisations overall performance. The L&D team are responsible for design, development, delivery and continuous improvement of training content, training quality and frameworks.

ACCOUNTABILITIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Key Accountabilities

- Lead and participate in capability and learning projects and contributing to the achievement of business outcomes and ANSTO's strategic direction.
- Conduct organisational and functional needs analysis activities to identify skills and knowledge required to perform identified job roles and as part of talent management and succession planning.

- Design, build (includes writing) and facilitation of new in-house leadership and management development courses and/or improvements to existing learning curriculum to ensure consistency using a blended (includes virtual) approach and engaging activities in consultation with internal subject matter experts or external providers.
- Evaluating and analysing the effectiveness of capability and learning activities to ensure quality outcomes are delivered.
- Manage complex and multiple projects with a focus on tracking and maintaining program deliverables, timelines, resources, budget and reporting.
- Maintaining knowledge of current capability and learning issues and innovations in learning, technology including use of a Learning Management System (LMS).
- Through the design and delivery of compliance, leadership, people management and soft skills training programs, support the group's efforts to influence and embed behaviour and cultural change, ensuring alignment with ANSTOs mission, values, and desired behaviours that contribute to a healthy workplace culture
- Establish, engage and maintain stakeholder relationships across ANSTO through effective communication, negotiation, troubleshooting, advice and issues management to ensure training and development deliverables are met.
- Lead collaboration with Subject Matter Experts (SME) and write learning courses to translate business area procedures and processes into meaningful training solutions.
- In consultation with SME's, undertake continuous improvement reviews of all online training program content and delivery methods to ensure information is current, relevant with associated legislation and aligned to industry best practice.
- Work collaboratively as part of a team, assist team members during periods of heavy work-loads, respond to service desk requests and contribute to achieving the team's business outcomes
- Undertake additional duties as required and during period of leave of other staff.

Decision Making

- Review, design, build (includes writing), facilitate, update and evaluate learning items to deliver fit for purpose training solutions in the context of ANSTO's business needs and in consultation with SMEs.
- Routine needs analysis to identify training gaps and provide advice and solutions.
- The position has some independence in determining how to achieve objectives of the learning programs and projects, including deciding on methods and approaches, operations, planning and allocation of resources.
- The ANSTO values, organisational corporate plan, business plan, operational excellence program, the Learning and Development strategy and objectives provide the context for the position.
- The position is fully accountable for the accuracy, integrity and quality of the content of advice provided to key stakeholders, and is required to ensure that decisions are based on sound evidence, but at times may be required to make effective judgements under pressure or in the absence of complete information or expert advice.
- Determines key work priorities within the context of agreed work plans and will consult with the supervisor on complex, sensitive and major issues that have a significant impact on the achievement of project objectives or the organisation
- The levels of authority delegated to this position are those approved and issued by the Chief Executive Officer. All delegations will be in line with the ANSTO Delegation Manual AS-1682 (as amended or replaced).

Key Challenges

- Obtaining SME buy-in into different content design options using an adult learning approach and possibly their current limited understanding of impactful learning design.
- Must be an outstanding and professional communicator, including in writing and facilitation of learning material

- Addressing the issue of employee training attendance in a busy and dynamic work environment, which has significant mandatory training requirements, which may adversely affect attendance at other 'value-added' training.
- Accommodating the training needs of the organisation within existing resources budget constraints
- Keeping up with the adult learning landscape and technologies while improving processes and maximising the effectiveness of the training resources.
