

Eligibility

To be considered, applicants must be of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent; identify as an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person; be accepted by their community as being Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander.

Applicants are required to provide evidence to confirm the above. Acceptable evidence includes:

- a letter signed and executed by the Chairperson of an incorporated Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander organisation confirming that the applicant is recognised as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person; or
- a confirmation of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent form executed by an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander organisation.

Applicants must also have completed the Higher School Certificate (or equivalent), be Australian citizens, provide evidence of the claims made in their application, and pass a security and pre-employment medical assessment.

Collection Notice

This recruitment process necessarily involves the collection and use (including disclosure) of personal information including sensitive information (including in relation to health and Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander status). Such information is dealt with in accordance with our privacy policy available at: <https://www.ansto.gov.au/privacy-policy>.

If you apply, the following personal information will be disclosed to the Sir William Tyree Foundation ABN 55 067 867 510 for the purposes of evaluating the application: your name, your Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander status, information provided in your application form, information provided in your cover letter and resume, your academic records, and any other information you include as part of your application.

You may choose not to provide some or all of the requested information but that may mean that we are unable to accept or progress your application.

If you have any questions about this fantastic opportunity and would like to talk with a friendly member of our team, please call Laura Dascolias on 02 9717 3675 or email laura.dascolias@ansto.gov.au.