USER MEETING 2022

Sponsor & Exhibitors Packages

1st & 2nd DECEMBER

The Australian Synchrotron's annual User Meeting showcases some of the best research and investigations undertaken at the facility, and provides our user community with updates on the latest developments and technical advances in synchrotron science, both at home and at our sister light sources overseas. Organised by the Australian Synchrotron User Advisory Committee, the 2022 meeting will again be held at the award-winning National Centre for Synchrotron Science (NCSS).
