

High Performance Macromolecular Crystallography Beamline (MX3)

Fantastic progress on the MX3 Beamline with installation of the insertion device during the December/January shutdown. The MX3 team, along with specialist technicians and engineers, have also been commissioning the sample robot and stages in the test cage.

The insertion device before it was lifted into the storage ring

MX scientists' Christmas spirit while expert technicians and engineers install and level the insertion device