

ANSTO Australian Synchrotron USER MEETING 2024

Sponsor & Exhibitors Packages

27th - 29th
NOVEMBER

The ANSTO Australian Synchrotron's annual User Meeting will once again showcase some of the best research and investigations undertaken at the facility, and will provide our user community with updates on the latest developments and technical advances in synchrotron science, both at home and at our sister light sources overseas. Organised by the Australian Synchrotron User Advisory Committee (UAC), the 2024 meeting will be held from Wednesday 27th to Friday 29th November at the award-winning National Centre for Synchrotron Science (NCSS).
